Tribute of Respect.

May the 5th, 1877, the following preamble and resolutions relative to the life and deat of our beloved brother, Jacob Rudolph, were adopted at a meeting of Fredonia

He who does all things right, in His wise providence, has taken this most excellent brother from our community, our association and our mystic circle. We may truly say that life with him was a success. He passed through the different stages of life, childhood, youth, manhood and old age, in the same community, hence was well known, and known to be much respected by all that can appreciate true worth. His name was as a household word in almost every family in the neighborhood in which he lived for more than three score and ten years. So noble, generous and cheerful was his disposition that it was both pleasant pect only such prices as common stuff is and profitable for old and young to associate with him; consequently all ages sought his with him; consequently all ages sought his gladly receive "a large crop of good Clarks-company. ## Clarksville Tobacco

OFFICE OF THE CHRONICLE, CLARKSVILLE, May 12, 1877. Our receipts continue full, and our sales continuing at the time of going to press, we cannot give the amount of sales for the week, but suppose they will foot up between 500 and 600 hogsheads. The market was very firm in its tone, and anything at all desirable ran up to fancy figures. Unfortunately for our people, our Tobacco croplast year while a short one was also a very poor one, and we have but little fine or even good Tobacco upon which to realize fancy prices, the bulk of the crop being thin, poor, green leaf, and generally delivered in bad keeping order; and for such, all markets being full of common Tobacco, we can expect only such prices as common stuff is worth. The markets of the world would gladly receive "a large crop of good Clarks-ville Tobacco at full prices," and we hope week, but suppose they will foot up between good Tobacco will be made this year.
